Legal Questions?

It's often difficult for ministries to determine how they should manage their operations in light of today's legal environment:

- "Is it safe to let outside groups use our building?"
- "Are church board members personally liable for board decisions?"
- "What issues should we consider if we had to terminate an employee?"
- "What if a registered sex offender wants to attend our church?"
- "How do we prepare for disruptions and violence in our church or school?"

Thankfully help is available through Brotherhood Mutual's FREE Legal Assist services.
